Health Care

Northeast Georgia Medical Center located in Gainesville is Georgia's #1 hospital and ranked #2 in the nation by CareChex. The Ronnie Green Heart Center specializes in intensive cardiac care and is recognized as one of the leading heart care centers in the state. Northeast Georgia Medical Center's reputation attracts the best doctors and nurses to the area resulting in excellent medical care available at multiple locations throughout the area.

The new Northeast Georgia Medical Center Braselton is a fast growing center for healthcare services for residents on the I-85 corridor, and like NGMC in Gainesville, the new hospital is surrounded by a growing number of healthcare providers that have expanded their service coverage from Gainesville, Athens and Gwinnett County.

"Access to world-class healthcare improves the quality of life for residents in Gainesville-Hall County and throughout the region," said Kit Dunlap, President and CEO of the Greater Hall Chamber of Commerce. "The quantity and quality of healthcare services available in Hall County allows area residents to have top-rated care close to their homes, families and friends."
